

FOREST TEK FUN BUNCH

We are happy to announce the destination for our 2012 incentive trip will be the Playa del Carmel area of Mexico. It's been quite a few years since we visited this area and we feel the time is right for us to go again.

Playa del Carmen is situated in what is referred to as the "Mayan Riviera" approximately 45 minutes from the Cancun airport. It is nearly 100 miles of beautiful white-sand beaches with brilliant turquoise colored water.

Playa del Carmen runs along the Caribbean coastline of the state of Quintana Roo. The area was an important commercial and religious center for the ancient Mayans, and there are many archaeological sites to discover in the area. Although there are hotels and tourist amenities throughout the area, there are many eco-tourism options that allow visitors to experience the natural resources and amazing biodiversity of the beautiful region.

The most exciting part of our trip will be our resort, THE PARADISUS LA PERLA. If you have traveled with us before, you know we have stayed in many Paradisus resorts and know them to be 5-star, ultra all-inclusive. The Paradisus La Perla will officially open in late November and is already looking forward to the arrival of the Forest Tek/Overseas Fun Bunch.

The Paradisus La Perla is the Adults only section of the entire resort of Paradisus Playa del Carmen and features all junior suites. It is located in a stunning bay and is oceanfront with views of Cozumel Island. In true Paradisus style, she offers 12 restaurants, 10 bars, YHI spa and health club, a 57,000 sq. ft. swimming pool and a swim-up bar. All meals, drinks and room service are included at this fabulous resort.

We look forward to hosting you in Playa del Carmen, Mexico April 18 - 22, 2012.
